

How the Five British Values are explored in Key Stage One

In the curriculum topics, the values are taught as a whole or theme, or alternatively, through specific objectives of the topic.

Key Stage One
Democracy	Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Tolerance
Y2 pupils have the opportunity to have their voices heard through our School council. The elections of members of these are voted for democratically, through pupil only votes. Y2 RSHE Topic: We Meet God's Love in our Community History Topic: Famous Queens	Computing Topic: My Online Life History Topic: Guy Fawkes and the Gunpowder Plot	School Council members choose to stand for election. If elected, they attend fortnightly meetings to share ideas and discuss new initiatives that they think will enhance the learning environment for all children attending our school. They are instrumental in the organisation of school events such as Anti-Bullying Week, Walk to School Week and the Macmillan Coffee Morning. Personal Development Topic: Growing and Changing Computing Topic: My Online Life	Personal Development Topic: Respecting Ourselves and Others and Safe Relationships Personal Development Topic: Safe Relationships Geography Topic: Comparison of UK and Kenya Geography Topic: Comparison of Cape Town and Edinburgh Music Topic: West African Call and Response Song	RE: study of Judaism RE: study of another faith on rolling programme – Islam, Hinduism, Sikhism Personal Development Topic: Belonging to a Community Personal Development Topic: Money and Work Y1 RSHE Topic: We meet God's love in our Family
