

How the Five British Values are explored in Key Stage Two.

In the curriculum topics, the values are taught as a whole or theme, or alternatively, through specific objectives of the topic.

Key Stage Two
Democracy	Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Tolerance
Pupils have the opportunity to have their voices heard through our School council. The elections of members of these are voted for democratically, through pupil only votes. Children have opportunities and are encouraged to develop their own interests. This can take the form of offering ideas for highlighting certain causes and/or charities. UKS2 History Topic: Changing Power of Monarchs UKS2 History Topic: World War II	LKS2 Personal Development Topic: Belonging to a Community UKS2 Personal Development Topic: Belonging to a Community UKS2 Personal Development Topic: Keeping Safe UKS2 Personal Development Topic: Money and Work Computing Topic: My Online Life UKS2 History Topic: Tudor Britain UKS2 History Topic: Crime and Punishment	School Council members choose to stand for election. If elected, they attend fortnightly meetings to share ideas and discuss new initiatives that they think will enhance the learning environment for all children attending our school.
